nsurance and financial services company the Pavey Group celebrated the third anniversary of its Exeter office. The occasion was marked with Bigbury Bay oysters and a wine tasting reception at Pebblebed vineyard in Topsham.

Since opening in Exeter, the Pavey Group says business has gone from strength to strength. Its solid client base is served by a 15-strong team, including Helen Jones, who recently joined the firm as an account manager. The 50 guests included the company's founder, Michael Pavey, members of staff, clients and friends of the company, all of whom were treated to locally produced bread, ham and cheese.

Launch of the Cathedral Cat at Exeter Cathedral Pictures: Oliver Sanders

Canon Professor Nicholas Orme's new book, The Cathedral Cat: Stories from Exeter Cathedral, was launched in the Chapter House of Exeter Cathedral.

Nicholas Orme is Emeritus Professor of History at Exeter University and an honorary canon of Truro Cathedral. His latest book is a collection of 16 stories unearthed by a lifetime of research into Exeter Cathedral and its archives, and includes the story of the cat with wages paid four times a year.
